VENETIAN CARNIVAL IN REMIREMONT

THE PHILOSOPHY OF OUR ASSOCIATION

THE Venetian Carnival in Remiremont is a costume party distinguished by the elegance and refinement of the costumes and masks. Silence keeps the mystery alive while courtesy adds to the complete serenity of the day. Beauty and friendliness are the essential components for the respect of tradition.

Our association wishes to specify the state of mind in which this event is organized. Participants accept the responsibility to comply with the following criteria.

CRITERIA OF THE VENETIAN COSTUME

The costume is not a disguise and will be above all venetian and elegant. In order to preserve mystery and anonymity, no part of the body generating vulgarity should be visible and the wearing of a mask or wolf is mandatory.

Real weapons are prohibited.

BEHAVIOUR OF THE COSTUMED

Wearing a Venetian costume requires elegance, presence and is accompanied by graceful gestures. Courtesy in exchanges is essential as well as patience during the wait times. Let us respect our Casanovas and our many volunteers !

In order to maintain the mystery, let's keep silent and not remove our masks or other parts of the costume under the public's eyes !

If necessary, the costumed can help and participate in certain tasks such as : creation and lighting of paths, security, dressing room storage, and does not hesitate to help other participants.

PODIUM PARADE

To help ensure there are no traffic jams, please keep moving while giving your neighbour enough space. For security reasons, children not accompanied by a costumed relative (adult) are not allowed to march.

The podium is reserved for costumed persons in possession of the bracelet given at the reception in the changing rooms.

Access to the town hall and to the podium will be denied to any costumed no wearing the bracelet. Pets are not allowed.

CHANGING ROOMS

Members, Casanovas and volunteers have priority through registration with the association.

Costumed non members agree to occupy and share the remaining available boxes.

Alls persons present in the changing rooms will agree to the spaces provided and to respect the costumes stored.

Any person without a costume will be denied access to the changing rooms.

Opening and closing times must be respected.

Pets are not allowed.

All types of commercial transactions are prohibited.

SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE ASSOCIATION

Only members who are up to date with their membership fees may participate and must register with the chairman. The choice of characters is defined according to the contract concluded with the event organizers (number / type of costumes).

The costumed accept the responsibility to respect their commitment as weel as the management of the chairman and to inform him in case of empediment.

ROLE OF THE COMMITTEE

To organize and ensure the smooth running of the Remiremont event, apply the charter and communicate the necessary information to the participants.

And to intervene in case of non-compliance with our expectations while setting an example.
